R. BALBONI SEEKS SELECTMAN POST

Ronald C. Balboni of 25 King Street, Agawam, announces his candidacy for Selectman of Agawam at the caucus to be held Oct. 10. Mr. Balboni feels he is a qualified candidate because of his political and business experience and his social and educational accomplishments.

Volpe Questions Bellotti's Sincerity

Former Governor John A. Volpe has questioned the "sincerity" of a recent proposal offered by Lieutenant Governor Bellotti regarding industry in Massachusetts.

Volpe, Republican nominee for governor, said this week while campaigning in Worcester County, "on the basis of his past performance, specifically regarding the field of industrial unemployment, I seriously question Mr. Bellotti's sincerity regarding this proposal."

This past week Bellotti called for 100% financing for new plants in Massachusetts.

Volpe noted that last year, Bellotti filed House Bill No. 501 calling for an amendment to the state constitution which would empower communities to grant tax concessions to industry.

"However," Volpe said, "the

United Fund-Red Cross Campaign Now Underway

Once again, the time has arrived for the United Fund-Red Cross financial campaign.

Seeking a goal of $1,732,988 this year, the Greater Springfield drive, which includes Agawam, seeks to obtain the funds necessary to carry on its service through some 46 health, welfare and recreational agencies and the Springfield area Red Cross.

In order to assure the success of this month's campaign, Drive Chairman Herbert Almgren stresses that each pledge will have to be increased by 10 per cent.

The campaign this year is being concentrated into three and a half weeks of active solicitation, ending Oct. 28. Campaign officials feel hopefully that this centering of efforts into a shorter time period than usual will keep the volunteer canvassers on the alert and in active operation, so that the job can be done quickly while enthusiasm is high, and without the lag which in times past has spelled a failure to go over the top.

Clergy and labor leaders are united in indorsing the principle of giving "The United Way" through one payroll deduction pledge. In this way, a small amount contributed with regularity will enable a donor to make a more sizable gift than if the sum were to be handed outright.

Agawam residents will be urged to make generous contributions, not only because the Agawam Community YMCA program will receive support from the United Fund-Red Cross campaign, but residents will also "In the face of a steady decline in the number of industrial jobs in Massachusetts, Mr. Bellotti graciously puts forth proposals. Then he fails to follow through on them and instead spends his time telling the people of the state that Governor Peabody would not let him do anything. Unfortunately for Massachusetts," Volpe continued, "we are forced to conclude from Mr. Bellotti's record that he seeks only to derive political mileage from the economic hardship of the citizens of the Commonwealth, and then steps away from the real challenge."

SPORTSMEN'S
CORNER

By Bill Chiba

We just returned from a fabulous two days roaming the woods hunting for birds and noting the deer sign (and lack of same) in past hot spots. The Vermont foliage is a mass of breath catching color. Andy Gallano, well known artist, accompanied this writer to Fairlee, Vermont, and was able to paint two beautiful canvasses of the countryside. Moe and Margaret Eaton made Andy feel right at home, and stuffed him with Vermont goodies for two days. The diet went West under Margaret's culinary skill.

There are plenty of deer in the Green Mountain State this year, and the Bow hunter is bound to have a "Roman Holiday" when the season opens Saturday, Oct. 10th for sixteen days. Felix Losito, Mike Losito, Santi DiDonato, Carl Moccio, Noel Brown, Bob Cooley, Dave Blackburn and son, Leon Glidden, Rupert Kane, Dave Cesan, Frank Karakala, Lyman Hasting, are just a few of the residents that are all packed and chomping at the bit waiting for the week end to arrive.

The Eatons have 15 reservations for the coming bow week, and if the activity runs true to form, there will be thirty hunters at the farm when the season opens Saturday morning. Every Friday night before the season cars start to pull into the farm yard and bow hunters are begging Margaret for accommodations. By the time four in the morning rolls around, the farm house is bulging at the seams with impatient hunters.

1965 Gun Digest Available

Name your shooting specialty—and you are bound to find it thoroughly covered in the 1965, 19th annual edition of the Gun Digest.

The 19th annual Gun Digest's 384 well illustrated, giant sized pages are packed with a wealth of exciting and informative firearms and shooting material. It covers every subject imaginable, from the very latest in missile-age shotguns back to the ancient flintlock.

It starts out with highly important and timely feature article of interest to every gun lover, with "the Right to Bear Arms" by B. Fritz Samuels, a critical, sensitive and—above all—a sane evaluation of our Constitutional right, without hysteria, presented now, just months after the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy, required reading for everyone.

For hunters, there's a load of excitement, including such articles as "Grizzly Bear" by Bradford Angier, a spine tingling account of how to track this terror in the wilderness of Alaska.

The book is available at sports or book stores, news dealers, or can be ordered for $3.95 postpaid from the Gun Digest Association, 4540 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Saxon Wood Lanes

The group received free bowling, free instruction and free soda compliments of the manager. Certified instructors and coaches were on hand to help the new bowlers.

Mr. Bruce R. Mientka, general manager states that the program will continue every Saturday morning at 10 a.m. throughout the season, so if your children missed last week, have them on hand this week for a morning of fun.

Christmas Seal
Agency Needs Help

The volunteer effort is under way in preparation for the annual Christmas Seal Campaign which starts Nov. 16th.

Volunteers have been reporting to the Hampden County Tuberculosis and Public Health Association offices at 284 State St., on weekdays to type address labels which will be placed on the envelopes carrying Christmas Seals to more than 100,000 Hampden County homes.

More volunteers are needed and typists who can give their time may call the TB Association office to arrange a schedule during the day between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Last week the High School of Commerce pupils began their annual typing service. They will serve two hours each weekday after school for five weeks. Ten volunteer students attend the daily sessions.

Members of the Springfield Chapter of the National Secretaries Association also have volunteered for the typing task and have scheduled their service on Monday evenings through the next four weeks.

The volunteer effort is in behalf of a program which works for the prevention and control of TB and respiratory illnesses.

You and The Town Meeting Members

Not happy with the tax rate? Like to talk about it? Good idea, and the ones to talk to are your Town Meeting Members.

Agawam has six precincts with 30 Town Meeting Members in each. They are elected for 3 year terms with 10 members up for election each year. They alone vote money expenditures on every item except the School Budget. Town employees can be Town Meeting Members. Loyalty to the town prompts many to serve, though they do have the dubious privilege of voting on matters of personal concern.

Did you say that you would like to be one?

It's quite easy. You have until 5 p.m. on Oct. 13, to get a nominating paper from the Town Clerk at the Town Hall, have 10 or more registered voters in your precinct sign and then, file the Nominating Paper with the Town Clerk. Don't forget, have this filed before 5 p.m. on Oct. 13 and note that Town Meeting Members do not carry party labels.

This is step I. The signatures are then verified by the registrars.

You must then go back to the Town Clerk at the Town Hall, sometime before 5 p.m. on Oct. 20 and sign your paper. This signifies that you intend to run. This is step II.

Step II can be completed for you by a responsible person. An interpretation can be had from the Town Clerk. Now you are on the ballot. Only persons in your precinct can vote for you, so get acquainted.

The rest of us, not in the elected group can go to precinct meetings where the Town Warrant is gone over article by article and explained. A voice here will be heard. This is democracy in action.

That program on TV that we are watching on precinct meeting night may be an expensive one, so let's call our Town Meeting Members and tell them how we feel, when we can't attend.

What was that about "City Hall?" Yes, that's right. Every voter in Agawam is "City Hall" for they control the budget.

should be brought to Mrs. Krawski, Red Cross advisor in room 12. WON'T YOU PLEASE HELP!!

Well it's that time of the year again girls. Have you asked your beau to the Sadie Hawkins dance yet? If you haven't, you'd better ask him. The Sadie is going to be held in the Agawam High School cafeteria, Oct. 15th, from 8 to 11. There will be games and prizes. So hurry up girls—ask the boy of your choice.

Social Security for Students

"The American Legion has strongly backed HR11865 in testimony before the Senate Finance Committee . . . HR11865 would extend Social Security benefit payments to dependent children beyond age 18, an up to 21, if they are enrolled in an approved school and remain unmarried . . . Under present law, those Social Security benefits paid as the result of death, retirement or disability of a worker, on behalf of his children, stop when the children reach 18 . . . The Legion has noted that this cutoff impairs opportunities for higher education for such children . . . In Res. 544 of its 1962 National Convention the Legion urged a law to extend the age limit beyond 18 if the child is continuing in school, which HR11865 would do." (From the October American Legion Magazine).
